Sayreville Residents Invited to a March 13 Open House to Learn About New Jersey's "Next Great Hometown"

$2.5 Billion Waterfront Mixed-Use Community Planned on the Raritan River

SAYREVILLE, NJ, March 1, 2018 – Sayreville residents are invited to attend an open house on Tuesday, March 13 at 5:30 p.m. at the Sayreville Senior Center to learn about plans for "Riverton," a 418-acre waterfront destination on the Raritan River. This project is being developed by North American Properties (NAP), a multi-regional real estate company known for creating immersive mixed-use communities.

This event marks NAP's first presentation of the project vision to the public. NAP strongly believes in the power of community engagement, and seeks to work with Sayreville residents, to co-author an experience unique to New Jersey.

"We look forward to meeting and hearing from our Sayreville neighbors" said Mark Toro, a New Jersey native and Rutgers graduate, who founded and serves as managing partner of the North American Properties Atlanta office. "This project will be a powerful economic catalyst for Sayreville. But more than that, we will create a special place for people to meet, enjoy a great meal, have fun with the family and take in spectacular coastline views that have been hidden for decades behind an industrial fence."

Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. for a meet-and-greet with NAP team members. There will be an hour-long presentation at 6:30 p.m., followed by an informal hour of one-on-one conversation. The senior center is located at 423 Main Street; the main entrance is through the rear. There is no cost to attend.

The community is encouraged to follow and engage with Riverton on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, and use the hashtag #ExperienceRiverton. To learn more, visit www.experienceriverton.com.
